

Opening Hours

Monday	9.30 - 5.30
Tuesday	9.30 - 5.30
Wednesday	9.30 - 1.00
Thursday	9.30 - 7.00
Friday	9.30 - 5.30
Saturday	9.30 - 2.00

Look in your library for:

- Books for loan and reference
- Free Internet Access
- WiFi
- Newspapers
- CDs and DVDs
- Computer courses
- Photocopying
- Meeting Room
- Exhibitions
- Rhymetimes
- Jigsaw swap

www.worcestershire.gov.uk/libraries

Tenbury Library

Readers' Group

Autumn/Winter 2011

Tenbury Library Readers' Group

Tenbury Reader's Group normally meets at Tenbury Library on the third Wednesday of every month at 7.30 pm (In December the meeting is in the second week to avoid the Christmas rush!)

There is a charge for refreshments during the evening

The evening usually involves the discussion of the book or books read over the previous month, followed by a general chat about books – fiction and otherwise – read and enjoyed.

Members sometimes bring their own books to loan, though the majority of reading material is from the library. Because of this, it is a good idea to bring your library ticket to meetings.

For more information please contact:

Sally Mathews

At Tenbury Library on 01905 822722

Email TenburyLib@worcestershire.gov.uk

21st September 'The Immortal life of Henrietta Lacks' Rebecca Skloot

Non-Fiction. Henrietta Lacks was a poor tobacco farmer in America's Deep South, but her cancer cells provided a standard culture for laboratories all over the world, without her family's knowledge.

19th October 'Juliet, Naked' Nick Hornby

A romantic comedy about three people who feel that life has passed them by – but discover that things can develop to prove them wrong.

16th November 'The Book of Human Skin' Michelle Lovric

Minguillo Fasan is born in Venice, in the late 1700's. He is a strange, disturbing, devious child, never more so than when a sister arrives to threaten his inheritance...

14th December 'The Small Hand' Susan Hill

A ghost story by a master of ghost stories! A man finds himself haunted by the grip of a small invisible hand guiding him to...Find out when you read this wonderful story.

18th January 2012 A Bronte of your choice!

Choose a favourite book by Charlotte, Emily or Anne or even try Branwell. The aim is to reread a classic or try a book that you have always intended to read, but have never found the time.

15th February 'Before I Go to Sleep' S.J.Watson

Thriller. A woman loses her memory when she sleeps, so everything is unfamiliar when she wakes. She is forced to take everything on trust – but is everything as it should be?

14th March 'The Poisonwood Bible' Barbara Kingsolver

The story of Nathan Price who takes his family to the Belgian Congo in 1959. A wonderful book about a violent and beautiful country.