Teme Readers

Tenbury Library's Afternoon

Reading Group

Tuesday, 27th September

The Bolter

By Frances Osborne

The subheading is: 'Idina Sackville – the woman who scandalized 1920's society and became White Mischief's infamous seductress'. A book that divides opinion – was she a sinner or more sinned against?

Tuesday, 25th October

Into Danger: Risking Your Life for Work

By Kate Adie

An interesting book about dangerous professions and the reasons why people choose to do them.

Tuesday, 29th November

The Road Home

By Rose Tremain

The story of Lev, a Polish Migrant worker, and his attempts to support his family with his work in a pre-economic-crash London. Insightful and moving.

Tuesday, 20th December

The Small Hand

By Susan Hill

A perfect short ghost story for the Christmas Season told by the writer of the excellent 'The Woman in Black'. Not for the faint-hearted.

Tuesday, 31st January 2012

Lighthousekeeping

By Jeanette Winterson

This is the story of Silver, a young girl who lives in Cape Wrath lighthouse and has a strange life amongst eccentrics. A lyrical novel that combines poetry with ...oddness.

Teme Readers meet on the last Tuesday of each month (except in December) at 2pm. Meetings are free and the books are available from the library. The meeting lasts for an hour.
