

LIBRARIES AND LEARNING SERVICE

CATSHILL LIBRARY – READERS GROUP

We are an informal group of people who enjoy meeting to talk about books we have read. The group decides its own programme and takes the opportunity to include authors and titles that people haven't tried before as well as old favourites.

Membership is free. Just come along to the meetings when you can. Books in the programme can be reserved free of charge upon production of this leaflet. We meet in the library at 6.30 to 7.30 pm, normally the second Monday evening in each month. Please check the date as this can vary.

Tea and coffee are available.

New members are always welcome. For more information please contact Barbara Trickett at Catshill Library by telephone on 01905 822722 or by email at Catshilllib@worcestershire.gov.uk
