

Who is this course aimed at?

This short 45 minute course is aimed at people who want to know how to connect their camera to the computer and print images.

What will I need?

Basic computer, mouse and keyboard skills

Programme Aims

To be able to use connect your camera to the computer and print pictures

What will I do?

- The benefits of digital photography
- The key features of a digital camera
- How to get photos from your camera to your computer
- How to edit and print your photos

How will I be taught?

This is an online course which lasts for approximately 45 minutes

How will I be assessed?

There is no formal assessment

What could I progress on to?

On to other internet based short courses
Tutor led ICT course computer and your camera

What equipment should I bring?

Pen pencil and note book

Will I gain a qualification?

No qualification is attached to this course