

Positive Behaviour Team conference
Monday 9th January 2012
Whole day conference registration 9am
Worcester Rugby Club

Assertive Discipline: Positive Behaviour Management for Today's Classroom

Key speaker – Dr Bill Rogers

Join world renowned behaviour expert Dr Bill Rogers at this new one day event which promises to be an indispensable experience for anyone looking to improve behaviour in schools.

You'll find out about the practical strategies that Bill has developed to combat difficult behaviour in the school. The implementation of these strategies will be explored and you will leave the conference buzzing with ideas to put into practice as soon as you return to school.

A teacher by profession, Dr Bill Rogers is a world renowned behaviour expert who now lectures widely on discipline and behaviour management strategies. Author of several best selling books on the subject, Bill Rogers is highly regarded amongst his peers, with comments on his previous work including:

"He is consciously reflective of day-to-day classroom experiences and this 'in touch with' dimension in his writings gives him credibility and encourages his readers to develop their own practice."

Mike O'Connor,

The Psychology of Education Review

"Bill Rogers has inspired a generation of teachers through his books and lectures. He has the gift of credibility, talking to real teachers about real classrooms, and never patronising us."

Geoff Barton,

Times Educational Supplement

"He presents with vivid authenticity - his stories are always a potent cocktail of pain and humour - tales of classroom and school challenge with which any practising teacher immediately identifies."

Professor Sir Tim Brighouse,

Times Educational Supplement

What Will Be Covered?

Over the course of the day Bill will cover a variety of topics including:

- Positive behaviour leadership and discipline skills
- The language of correction and discipline
- How to develop a class behaviour agreement (whole class / developing rights, responsibilities and rules)
- Developing effective use of 'time-out'
- Individual and whole-school emphases for behaviour management
- Managing frustration and anger in behaviour management situations

"We work to enhance the skills and the confidence of those working and living with young people"
