

Time Detectives at The Commandery

Thursday 28th July

11.00 - 4.00

THE COMMANDERY
Peeling back the layers of history

Time Detectives!

In association with BBC Hands on History - Dig!

A fun day of archaeological activities and workshops for all ages.

Discover and meet characters from The Commandery's medieval and Tudor past, find out about their lives and occupations through hands on activities;

Examine documents and artefacts of the period in a series of workshops and take part in our reproduction archaeological dig!

Record your findings from our trail and activities around the building too!

In partnership with W.H.E.A.S and The Worcester Archive Source Project (WASP)

Check out bbc.co.uk/history/handsonhistory for archaeology activities to try at home, animations for kids and details of other events and activities near you.

The Commandery, Sidbury, Worcester, WR1 2HU

01905 361821, www.worcestercitymuseums.org.uk

Open Monday-Saturday 10am-5pm, Sunday 1.30pm-5pm

Admission adults £5.40, concessions £4.10, children £2.30, family £12.50

Free for Worcester City residents