

Introduction to the Countryside - the Wyre Forest and Surrounding Area

Friday 21st October, Trinity Church, Kidderminster.

A FREE one day training course introducing you to your local countryside:

- Discover local green spaces
- Understand basic maps and trails
- Find out where to get information from
- Consider what you might see
- Learn what goes on in the Countryside and who manages it
- Know what your rights and responsibilities are and the Countryside Code
- Discuss what to wear and take with you

The course is suitable for adults who are keen to go out and enjoy the countryside but need a helping hand to make the first step.

The course will start at 9.30am (tea and coffee from 9.15am) and finish at 4.30pm. Lunch and light refreshments are provided. Course confirmations will detail the day. Places are limited so please book early to avoid disappointment.
