

Worcestershire County Council – Implied Licence Terms and Conditions

Implied Licence Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988 (as amended) and Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2005

The relevant documents may be re-used in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Implied Licence. In most cases Worcestershire County Council will own the copyright. However, we draw your attention to the fact that some or all of the documents may be the copyright of another person or organisation.

Documents where the copyright is owned by Worcestershire County Council

For documents where the copyright is owned by Worcestershire County Council you are free to re-use any of the documents supplied in any format or medium for the following purposes: for personal use including non-commercial research purposes, private study, internal circulation within your organisation or for the purposes of news reporting. However this is subject to the information contained within the documents being used accurately and not in a misleading context. You should also identify Worcestershire County Council as the source of the information. However, if you would like to re-use our documents for other purposes e.g. publishing them or using them commercially, then you will need to ask for our consent.

You can make a formal application for re-use by writing to the Information Access Officer, Worcestershire County Council, Corporate Information Management Unit, County Hall, Spetchley Road, Worcester, WR5 2NP, email: re-use@worcestershire.gov.uk Full guidance on how to make an application to re-use our information can be found in our Re-Use Policy at <http://worcestershire.whub.org.uk/home/wcc-records-re-use>

Documents where the copyright is owned by a Third Party

For documents where an organisation or person other than Worcestershire County Council owns the copyright, you will need to apply direct to the copyright owner to re-use them. Where possible we can help you identify the copyright owner and their contact details.

Compliance with intellectual property right legislation is solely your responsibility and Worcestershire County Council accepts no liability for infringement of any intellectual property rights, including but not limited to copyright.
