

WHAT IS... AN F.E. COLLEGE

What is a Further Education College?

Further Education (F.E) colleges are education and training institutions. F.E colleges offer courses at every level from entry level through to higher level qualifications. You need to be at least 16 years old to attend college and most full-time courses at college are 16 hours a week.

Further Education Colleges in Worcestershire

Heart of Worcestershire College
with campuses in Malvern, Worcester, Bromsgrove and Redditch.

Kidderminster College

Warwickshire College Group with campuses in Evesham, Malvern and Pershore.

SEARCH LOCAL COLLEGES:
[What is a Further Education
college? | Worcestershire
County Council](#)

Would you like to go to a Further Education College?

Why not look through each of the colleges and the courses they offer. You can record information about any courses you are interested in using the box below.

A large, empty rectangular box with a thin pink border, intended for recording information about courses of interest. The box is positioned centrally on the page.