

Hi

I can't believe the issue of the quarry at Lea Castle, despite being already rejected, is apparently still being pursued by nrs aggregates The idea of opening a quarry next to a camp site, houses and schools is outrageous and the current decision has already been made. I would like to register my objection s again, in the strongest terms.

Yours sincerely

Simon Betts